Gives Instant Relief, Cures and Prevents Catarrh and Cold, in the Head.

The quickest, best and safest way to cure catarrh or a cold in the head is by using a remedy that will "touch the spot" and do its work quickly without leaving any bad effects. Ely's Cream Balm, which is applied to the nostrils or rubbed on the throat or chest, gets right at the root of the trouble and instantly relieves even the worst case of catarrh or old. A few minutes after applied you can feel a loosening up in the head, the pain and soreness are gone, the sense of taste, smell and hearing come back, and you feel like a different per-

Ely's Cream Balm cleanses, heals and strengthens the inflamed membranes, takes away that stuffed-up feeling and dull pain in the head, relieves the throat soreness and stops the nasty discharge which is the cause of the disgusting hawking, spitting, blowing of the nose and foul breath. Hay fever victims who are made miserable by ts of sneezing, coughing and wh ezing get instant and per-manent relief by the use of this simple remedy.

Don't suffer another minute. Elv's Cream Balm will relieve you immediately, and a 50-cent bottle will more than likely work a complete cure. All druggists sell it. Agent, James O'Don-

But, Explorer Stefanson Says, He Did Not Claim They Were Scandinavians.

NEW YORK, October 9.-Viljalmur tefansson, the explorer, popularly known Andrew Ignatius Hickey, District of Eskimos," issued a statement in New York today in conjunction with an official circular from the American Museum of Natural History, explaining just what he had said concerning the strange people he met among the Eskimos of Coronation gulf and vicinity.

"I have never said to any one that I discovered 2,000 pure Scandinavians or the arctic," says the explorer. "I never said that the people in question had 'no Mongolian characteristics whatever'; I never said they had any connection with Leif the Lucky, nor with a Scandinavian colony in Newfoundland, nor did I ever hear of such a colony before the newspapers quoted me as discussing it.
